GREEK CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY

By A. H. J. GREENIDGE, M. A., Late Lecturer in Hertford College and Brasenose College, Oxford.

With this purpose ever in view, he treats of the development of Greek public law, distinguishing the different types of states as they appear. Cloth, $1.50.

ROMAN FESTIVALS

By W. WARD FOWLER, M. A., Fellow and Sub-Rector of Lincoln College, Oxford.

This book covers in a concise form almost all phases of the public worship of the Roman state, as well as certain ceremonies which, strictly speaking, lay outside that public worship. It will be found very useful to students of Roman literature and history as well as to students of anthropology and the history of religion. Cloth, $1.50.

ROMAN PUBLIC LIFE

FACSIMILE OF THE CODEX VENETUS MARCIANUS 474 OF ARISTOPHANES

The photographic facsimile of this important MS. was undertaken jointly by the Archaeological Institute of America and the Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies, with the permission of the Government of His Majesty the King of Italy, and was issued in an edition of two hundred copies in 1902. The most of these have been sold. The price per copy of those that remain unsold is $35.00 in portfolio, and $36.75 bound in half-morocco.

The Codex Venetus Marcianus CCCCLXXIV is one of the oldest and best sources of the text of Aristophanes. It was written at the beginning of the twelfth century, contains seven plays and is superior to all other manuscripts of this author in the number and quality of the scholia with which its margins are filled. It is indeed especially on account of the scholia that a reproduction was called for; for while the scholia of the Ravennas, though less valuable, have been edited in full, those of the Venetus, which are of prime importance for the criticism of Aristophanes, have never been adequately published.

The plates, 344 in number, were executed by the collotype process by the Oxford University Press from negatives taken by Signor Bertani of Venice. A full palaeographical introduction by Mr. T. W. Allen, Fellow of Queen's College, Oxford, is prefixed to the facsimile.

The Central American Fellowship with a stipend of $600 is awarded annually. Other Fellowships are to be established as soon as funds are secured for their maintenance. The School coöperates in research with the Bureau of American Ethnology and with universities and scientific organizations, both home and foreign.
